Message at Thanksgiving Event of 5th October 2013

I would like to thank the organizing committee for arranging the thanksgiving ceremony for our sons and daughters from Kajo-Keji who have been elevated in their political and professional roles. The Bible encourages us to give thanks in all circumstances (1 Thessalonians 5:16-17) so thank you for doing this.

I am not able to attend this important event because of an official visit that I am currently making to the United States of America which was planned for over three months ago.

My message to our ministers, Honorable Aggrey Tisa Sabuni and Honorable Catherine Juan, is: Work hard in all that you do and do it in all honesty and integrity so that you can leave a positive legacy of your time as a minister. As I mentioned to each one of you when we met before my trip to the US, be assured of my prayers. The Bible commands us to pray for all those in authority and we do it regularly.

To Brigadier General Mikaya Modi, congratulations and may God guide in your professional role and enable you to progress as you serve the nation of South Sudan. Do it diligently and with all honesty.

To Modong Manuela Mogga, congratulations for achieving the title of Miss World South Sudan 2013. May God use you in this role to encourage our girls to work hard and complete their studies. The rate of school dropouts in Kajo-Keji and many parts of South Sudan is unacceptable.

I wish you all God's blessings at this event and assure you all of my prayers.

Thanks
