

 PUBLIC ANNOUNCEMENT

VOCATIONAL SKILLS TRAINING OPPORTUNITY FOR THREE MONTHS

St. Martin Comboni Missionaries (SMCM), in collaboration with the Diocese of Kajo-Keji's Faith, Development & Relief Agency (FADRA), is pleased to announce an opportunity for vocational skills training under the Cross-Border Initiatives for Inclusive, Peaceful and Sustainable Livelihoods in South Sudan and Uganda.

This programme targets refugees and host community members, including returnees from Kajo-Keji, with the aim of equipping participants with practical, employable skills to improve livelihoods and promote self-reliance.

 Training Location

St. Martin Comboni Missionaries
Palorinya Refugee Settlement, Obongi District – Uganda

 Available Training Courses

Interested applicants can apply for training in the following fields:

- ∞ Bakery and Catering
- ∞ Hairdressing and Salon
- ∞ Bricklaying and Concrete Practice
- ∞ Welding and Metal Fabrication
- ∞ Horticulture

II Approved
[Signature]
DB

🎯 Objective of the Training

- To equip participants with hands-on vocational skills
- To enhance employment and self-employment opportunities
- To promote peaceful coexistence and economic resilience among refugees, host communities and returnees.

☑ Eligibility Criteria

- Refugees and host community members (including returnees from Kajo-Keji)
- Demonstrated interest and commitment to complete the training
- Willingness to use acquired skills for income generation
- Priority may be given to youth, women, and vulnerable groups

📄 Application Details

- Application Forms will be obtained from the Diocesan website at <https://kajokeji.anglican.org/> within the publication page or at Diocese of Kajo-Keji Main office in Romogi and Submitted to the Diocesan Main office or through email; dkkmeassistant@gmail.com
- Deadline for application submission: 22/04/2026
- Training start date: May 2026.

☎ For More Information

Call: 0920019598/ 0929490694

